WEEKLY EMAIL FOR PARENTS

CHARACTER TRAIT OF THE WEEK

Altruism

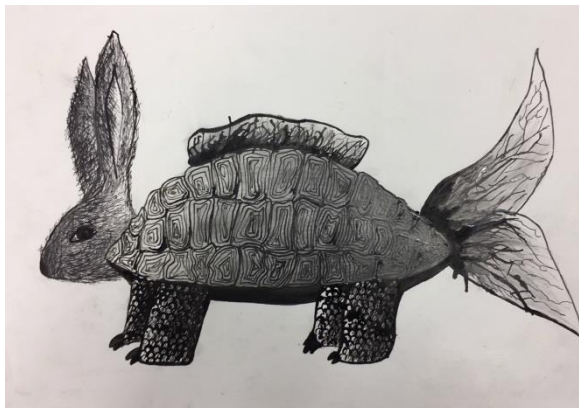

This means that I am...
...humane, kind and a good citizen.

Which means that I can...
...put others first, give to charity and give others a chance to answer questions.

As we come to the end of our term, pupils are receiving their feedback from their assessments. Their responses to feedback are an incredibly important factor in making even more progress next term. Whatever colour pupils get, they must show tenacity and responsibility in completing their feedback to the best of their ability. This is our growth mindset – to keep putting in effort even when things get tough. It is also the understanding that we can always improve if we work hard. It is this work ethic that makes an Ark John Keats pupil.

We wish everyone a restful holiday and look forward to welcoming all pupils back in the new year.
