CHARACTER TRAIT OF THE WEEK

Reflectiveness

This means that I am...
...patient, thoughtful, self-aware and mindful.

Which means that I can...
...make improvements, self-assess and draw out key learning points.

THIS HALF TERM

As our first half term draws to a close, pupils have been reflecting in their Character lessons on their long term goals. It is really important for pupils to put actions in place that they can do each day to help them achieve their goals. We support them to do this by reflecting at the end of each term. As one pupil in Kenya's Character session put it: 'you need short term actions to help you get to your long term aspiration'. We hope that pupils have a good break, and we look forward to seeing those actions in place next half term.
