Parent Volunteers Needed!

We would really appreciate any parent volunteers to come along and make sure that all our little scholars are safe and having a well deserved time of fun. Parents please pop into the office and let the admin team know if you are able to volunteer to support one of our attendance picnics at Albany Park on Wednesday 17th July.

We greatly appreciate your help in making these picnics fun for our wonderful scholars who achieved 100% attendance last term!

- Reception and Yr 3—09:00-10:00
- Yr 1 & Yr 4—10:15 - 11:15
- Yr 2 & Yr 5— 14:00 - 15:00

Please do not bring any food or drinks with you if you are coming along to help staff.

Wow! Just look at all these dedicated scholars! We are so incredibly proud of our scholars that achieved 100% attendance! They are super dedicated, and are clearly fighting off any silly illness bugs and viruses. The senior leadership team are taking all the scholars on picnics in the park to celebrate this dedication to being in school.

AJK Extreme Reading Challenge

Where is the most exciting place you have ever read a book? Whether it is up a tree, on top of a mountain or even stood on your head we want to know! This summer, we want to find AJK's most adventurous readers! Your challenge is to take a picture of yourself reading this summer – the more extreme the location, the better. Send it to us by Friday 13th September. Please send your pictures to: primaryreading@arkjohnkeatsacademy.org. And remember to be extremely safe while doing it!
