1. Mission Statement

At Ark John Keats Academy we pride ourselves on the diversity of people who make up our Academy community; and we value the varied contribution that everyone can make to our learning. We believe that all children, regardless of race, sex, or class, or disability can have high aims and that the Academy's task is to help them all achieve their potential. In order to achieve this, we shall ensure that all areas of the curriculum are suitably resourced in ways that reflect the range of cultures and that encourage children to respect each other's' languages and background.

We shall similarly encourage parents/carers to share their children's experiences and to offer their own as an aid and encouragement to learning. We will confront and discuss racist and sexist language or conduct; and through the positive enforcement of our Behaviour Policy we will do our best to ensure that all individuals in the Academy, including visitors, feel safe and are treated with consideration when they are amongst us.

This Equality Policy sets out the Academy's approach to promoting equality and diversity. It covers disability, gender and race/ethnicity, in response to the statutory duties on academies to publish disability and gender equality schemes and a race equality policy.

2. Roles and responsibilities

Everyone who works at Ark John Keats has a responsibility to promote equality and inclusion and avoid unfair discrimination.

3. Our school and Equality Act 2010

The Equality Act 2010 outlines the three aims of the general duty to have due regard for Equality, across all organisations:

1. Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and other conduct that is prohibited by the Equality Act 2010.
2. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.
3. Foster good relations across all protected characteristics – between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

Specifically, due regard is to be given within organisational life in order to:

1. Remove or minimise disadvantages
2. Take steps to meet different needs
3. Encourage participation when it is disproportionately low.

We have a strong commitment to fairness and equality in everything that we do.

- We endeavour to ensure that everyone is treated fairly and with respect.
- We work hard to make sure that the academy is a safe and secure environment for everyone.
- We recognise that people have different needs, and we understand that treating people equally does not always involve treating them all exactly the same.
- We recognise that for some pupils extra support is needed to help them to achieve and be successful.
- We try to make sure that people from different groups are consulted and involved in our decisions, for example through talking to pupils and parents/carers.
- We aim to make sure that no-one experiences harassment, less favourable treatment or discrimination because of their age; any disability they may have; their ethnicity, colour or national origin; their gender; their gender identity or reassignment; their marital or civil partnership status; being pregnant or having recently had a baby; their religion or beliefs; their sexual identity and orientation.

We welcome our general duty under the Equality Act 2010 to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination; to advance equality of opportunity; and to foster good relations.

We also welcome our specific duties to publish information about our school population; to explain how we have due regard for equality; and to publish equality objectives which show how we plan to tackle particular inequalities or disadvantages.

Meeting our duties to promote community cohesion, and the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils, also supports how we meet the needs of different groups of pupils and how we foster good relations.

We welcome the emphasis in the Ofsted inspection framework on the importance of narrowing gaps in achievement which affect, amongst others:

- pupils from certain ethnic and cultural backgrounds
- pupils who are supported by the pupil premium
- pupils who are disabled
- pupils who have special educational needs

4. The Public Sector Equality Duty

The information provided in this section shows how we are meeting the public sector equality duty. We are required to have due regard for the need to:

- A. Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Equality Act 2010
- B. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
- C. Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

The information below is a summary of how we have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation. Please contact us if you would like to see copies of any of our school policies.

- We are aware of the requirements of the Equality Act 2010 that it is unlawful to discriminate, treat some people less fairly or put them at a disadvantage.
