

Year Group Parent Workshops

Please join our Parent Workshops this term for the opportunity to hear from and talk to the school leaders and staff teaching your child this year.

At these workshops you will:

- Have childcare and light refreshments provided
- Hear from the leaders of the school and the year group team on a variety of whole school and year group specific topics including: the curriculum, reading, upcoming events, our culture, homework and more (40 minutes)
- Have an opportunity to talk with the leaders of the school, the year group team and other parents in an informal meet and greet after the presentation (20 minutes)

Location: Primary Hall (collect your children as usual at the end of the school day and then enter the hall via the primary playground)
